

trouble
hearing?
trouble
speaking?

you can still...

stay in touch

You can still make your own phone calls at no extra cost. The National Relay Service helps you:

- have good phone conversations – with less misunderstanding and repetition
- make appointments and business calls
- keep in touch with family and friends.

Calls can be made to anyone, anytime from anywhere in Australia. Calls are confidential and training is FREE.

Find out more:

www.relayservice.com.au

1800 555 660

helpdesk@relayservice.com.au

A phone solution for people who are deaf or have a hearing or speech impairment

An Australian Government Initiative